

MARCH AT EL GANZO

2021 - YEAR 9

We are super excited to share a new month with all of you! March brings spring, spring brings flowers, and flowers bring joy. Please let us take you on a ride towards happiness and creativity with our amazing friend and Artist in Residence Carlos Bautista, coming back to El Ganzo for a super special residence, colliding with our epic Musicians in Residence, Porter. This month comes with plenty of surprises moving and transforming in the air. Be sure to keep your eyes wide open to catch each and every one!

ARTIST IN RESIDENCE: CARLOS BAUTISTAB

MARCH 14 to 27

Carlos Bautista was born in CDMX in 1985. The ideas and narratives of his work are provocative towards contemplation, interiorization and spiritual meditation. Nature is the axis of his work, being the main theme in his work, always inviting the viewer to a call to life, close to the earth, the sky and himself.

His representations always invite us to confront ourselves with the spirit of things, associating the idea of the earthly, human with the heavenly and the abstract.

Chek him out! @carlosbautistab

MUSICIANS IN RESIDENCE: PORTER

MARCH 23 TO 28

Originally from Guadalajara, Mexico, Porter is an experimental Latin American rock band, which mixes mythology with typical sounds of Mexican culture. They have shared the stage with bands like Ian Brown, Incubus, The Strokes, Red Hot Chili Peppers, Phoenix, Café Tacvba, Zoé, among others.

Porter has participated in important festivals such as Coachella in 2008, SXSW, Vive Latino, Mx Beat, Tecate Bajío, Pal Norte, Corona Music Fest and Festival Catrina.

They have more than 150,000 physical album copies throughout their career and more than 50 million views on their official videos. They were nominated for the 2020 Latin Grammys in the category "Best Short Version Music Video" for the video "Para Ya" that is part of their album Las Batallas.
